Midwest Wisconsin Reading Council and WSRA Presents our Annual Authors Festival Featuring: Amanda Zieba

As an author, teacher and mother, it is Amanda Zieba's mission to help everyone she encounters love words just a little bit more than before. In this presentation she will talk about ways parents and teachers can foster, nurture and expand a love of words (or lack thereof) for the children in their lives. Several easy-to-implement, real life examples, and word-nerd opportunities will be shared.

Participants can be any teacher, parent, undergraduate student, or adult who wants to support children's' love of literacy.
