

You are Invited to NWRC

Young Authors' Workshop Saturday, April 29, 2017 at WITC Center

1900 College Drive Rice Lake, WI
8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Young authors in grades 2-6 will gather on Saturday, April 29, 2017 for this event. Each student must bring a story he/she has written for sharing at the workshop. Reading Council members and other teachers will facilitate the book sharing sessions.

The author this year is Miranda Paul. Some of the books Miranda is the author of are: One Plastic Bag, Water is Water, 10 Little Ninjas, Whose Hands are These, and Trainbots. Miranda's presentation will inform and inspire students in the field of writing! She will help guide students in the process of becoming better writers. We will have some of her books for sale at the conference. The author will autograph purchased books.

The schedule for the day is:

- Registration
8:00-8:15
- Meet with your facilitator
8:15-8:25
- Welcome and introduction
8:25-8:30

- Session 1
8:30-9:15
Break
9:15-9:20
- Session 2
9:20-10:05
Snack (included)
10:05-10:20
- Session 3
10:20-11:05
Break
11:05-11:10
- Culminating Activity/Pictures
11:10-11:30
Author Book sales & author signing
11:30- 12:00

Cost: $15 per student

If paying by check, please make check payable to NWRC.

If you choose to pay by check and mail paper registration, mail to:

Carrie Wessman
104 W. Washington Ave.
Bruce, WI 54819

All registrations are due by March 29, 2017.

Participant's name:

Grade:

Gender:

School District:
