

Join the Rock River Reading Council to Learn More About:

“No More Silos: Designing for Transfer”

Presented by: Tara M. Caul and Darcy Schobert-Bethke

Thursday, November 30, 2017

Rock River Intermediate School
451 East Spring St.
Waupun, WI 53963

What happens once the minilesson is done? How do you promote the transfer of skills, strategies, and knowledge across whole-group, small group, and independent settings? Designing intentional, seamless instruction that transfers from one setting to another is a complex process. Learn how one district has implemented this design, with the ultimate goal being transfer. This presentation is geared towards all teachers, reading specialists, literacy coaches, administrators, and preservice teachers.
