

Door County Reading Council Presents

Creating Student Centered Conversations and Discussions

Thursday, February 23, 5:00-7:00pm Stone Harbor Resort, Sturgeon Bay Cost: DCRC Members: Free, Non-Members: $10

rown Wessling is a 17-year veteran of the high school English classroom. While a member of the faculty at Johnston High School in Johnston, Iowa she has taught courses ranging from at-risk to Advanced Placement and has served the department and district in a variety of leadership roles. Sarah is a National Board Certified Teacher since 2005 and in 2010 was selected as the National Teacher of the Year. In that capacity she worked as an ambassador for education, giving over 250 talks and workshops in 39 different states as well as internationally. Currently she maintains a hybrid teaching position which keeps her in the classroom and allows her to write, speak and work on teacher leadership initiatives around the country. Sarah is Laureate Emeritus for the non-profit Teaching Channel. She is an portional portional and has launched her own blow,

Open Teaching, at sarahbrownwessling.com. (Note: Sarah will also be presenting at Sturgeon Bay Schools on February 24 during inservice. All CESA7 members are welcome to attend her Friday presentation. Friday's presentation will focus on the topic of close reading and learning to think with collaboration.)

Thank he ligh

ry Door County Medical Center for providing funding for we be provided during this event.

RSVPing is easy!

RSVP for this event at: https://goo.gl/QscM8v

Register for an annual membership online at: https://goo.gl/A4OMO6

Mark your calendar for our last event of the school year!

April 27: Dr. Mike Ford

To find more information on this event, visit <a href="http://dcreadingcouncil.wix.com/dcreading