

Multimedia Book & Author Resources on TeachingBooks.net Elementary & Middle School (PreK-8)

Here are some examples of multimedia author and book resources that can be integrated throughout your curriculum. Each subheading supports potential collaboration with your teachers.

TeachingBooks Original Author Programs

See and hear favorite writers and illustrators at work in their studios.

David Wiesner

- Art classes learn about book making directly from Caldecott Medalist David Wiesner.

Eric Schlosser

- Health and Wellness classes learn about healthy eating choices directly from Fast Food Nation author Eric Schlosser.

Author Programs Created by Other Sources

Enable students to learn tips directly from professional writers and illustrators.

Mary Pope Osborne

- Language arts classes learn about re-writing from the author of the Magic Tree House series.

Nikki Grimes

- Media Center classes conduct author studies on this Coretta Scott King Author Medal Winner who wrote Bronx Masquerade and The Road to Paris.

Author Name Pronunciations

Create personal connections to authors that change the way you read and relate to their books.

Kadir Nelson

- History classes listen to this Coretta Scott King Illustrator Medal winner and Caldecott Honoree share the story of his name – get a glimpse into this talented illustrator.

Carl Hiaasen

- Environmental studies classes using the book Hoot learn how to pronounce the author's name correctly.

Authors' Websites

Reveal how authors and illustrators think about their books through official websites.

Denise Fleming

- Early childhood classes access coloring sheets to be used with her colorful books.

Megan McDonald

- Middle grade classes go on a virtual tour of the studio of the Judy Moody series' author.

Book Guides

Stimulate informative discussions by utilizing online literature guides.

Not a Box* by Antoinette Portis

- Early elementary teachers encourage imaginative play using this Theodore Seuss Geisel Honoree book.

Team Moon* by Catherine Thimmesh

- Science & history classes collaborate with this Robert F. Sibert Informational Book Award winner.

Book Readings

Enable students to instantly hear the rhythm and pacing of a book.

When Marian Sang* by Pam Muñoz Ryan

- Music classes hear opera singer Marian Anderson with the help of this book reading of this Robert F. Sibert Informational Book Award Honoree.

Out of the Dust* by Karen Hesse

- Socials Studies classes get introduced to the "voice" of this Newbery Winner book.

Multimedia Book & Author Resources on TeachingBooks.net High School (7-12)

Here are some examples of multimedia author and book resources that can be integrated throughout your curriculum. Each subheading supports potential collaboration with your teachers.

TeachingBooks Original Author Programs

See and hear favorite writers and illustrators at work in their studios.

Marilyn Nelson

- Poetry classes learn about the heroic crown of sonnets from former Connecticut poet laureate.

Ernie Colón

- Social Studies classes learn about The 9/11 Commission Report from this graphic artist.

Author Programs Created by Other Sources

Enable students to learn tips directly from professional writers and illustrators.

Maya Angelou

- English classes using I Know Why a Caged Bird Sings hear the author's perspective.

Elie Wiesel

- History classes learn directly from this Holocaust survivor and award-winning author.

Author Name Pronunciations

Create personal connections to authors that change the way you read and relate to their books.

Yuyi Morales

- Spanish classes learn about Mexican naming conventions from this lyrical illustrator.

Janet Tashjian

- Library Media specialists learn to accurately pronounce the name of this young adult author.

Authors' Websites

Reveal how authors and illustrators think about their books through official websites.

Jacqueline Woodson

- Studies in pop culture learn about the author behind the Miracle's Boys mini-series.

John Green

- Math classes learn about the formula integral to the Printz Honoree book, An Abundance of Katherines, from the author's website.

Book Guides

Stimulate informative discussions by utilizing online literature guides.

Pride and Prejudice* by Jane Austen

- English classes discuss elements of this classic book.

Copper Sun* by Sharon M. Draper

- Social Studies classes choose the sort of paper to write in response to this Coretta Scott King winning book about the African slave trade.

Book Readings

Enable students to instantly hear the rhythm and pacing of a book.

The Astonishing Life of Octavian Nothing* by M. T. Anderson

- English classes hear the elegant, archaic language of this Printz Honor book set in the Revolutionary War era.

Romeo and Juliet* by William Shakespeare

- English Language Learners can hear the balcony scene come to life to help with their comprehension of this classic drama.