

Midwest Wisconsin Reading Council and WSRA Presents our Annual Authors Festival Featuring: Nancy Carlson

Kindergarten to Third Grade Presentation:

For younger learners, Nancy will talk about where she gets her ideas for her books. Her talk focuses on imagination and writing about your own life. She will draw at the end showing the audience how to draw her characters.

Fourth Grade to Eighth Grade Presentation:

For older learners, Nancy will talk about where she gets her ideas for her books. Focus on imagination, writing about your own life and character development. The audience will draw along with Nancy as she teaches them how to draw her characters. She then will challenge them to create their own characters.
