

38th Annual Wisconsin Literacy Research Symposium

Traversing the Complexities of Today's Literacy Landscape: Possibilities for Research, Theory, Policy, and Practice

JUNE 20 & 21, 2019

Hosted by the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee School of Education and the Wisconsin State Reading Association

Located at the UWM School of Continuing Education Building
161 W. Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, WI

---

We invite all stakeholders: educators, graduate students, pre-service teachers, researchers, and policy makers to be active participants in the exploration of literacy research that moves beyond narrow explorations to hold students' cultural, linguistic, and intellectual resources central in literacy learning.

Keynote speakers include: Eurydice Bauer, Barbara Comber, Ebony Elizabeth Thomas, and Karen Wohlwend.

For more information on the symposium registration, lodging, graduate course opportunities, and the research poster session, contact Leanne Evans, levans@uwm.edu or visit the 2019 Wisconsin Literacy Research Symposium website at uwm.edu/education/academics/38th-annual-wisconsin-literacy-research-symposium/