About Us

Midwest Wisconsin Reading Council collaborates with other Wisconsin local reading councils to provide professional learning throughout the year. We also encourage you to take advantage of the conference offerings at the state level, as well as leadership and advocacy opportunities.

Authors Festival

MWRC, in partnership with WSRA, is looking for a leader to organize an annual Authors Festival for students from grades kindergarten through eighth in our council area. The conference features authors and/or illustrators of children's books. Please contact us via email if you would like to lead in reviving this event.

Cost of Membership

The membership fee is $20 per year. Undergraduate fee is $5. The membership year runs from July 1 - June 30 each year.

Top Reasons to Join

1. Connect with literacy professionals in the area to collaborate and grow as an educator.
2. Show leadership in the profession by belonging to a professional organization.
3. Participate in informative and energizing professional learning opportunities.
4. Support literacy projects in the surrounding communities.
5. Keep up to date with legislation affecting educators and students.
