YOUNG AUTHORS 2023 WORKSHOP

Enriching Writing Together

Students in grades 1-8 will have the opportunity to meet authors KW Pendorff and Rick Chrustowski who will share their craft for the writing process and how they got started. They will discuss what authors and illustrators do, where they get their inspiration, and the process of publishing a book. There will be hands-on writing and illustrating activities with the authors. Books will be available for sale and authors will have a book signing session. Students will also be provided with a light lunch and writer's notebook. Contact person regarding questions or concerns is Krystle Eichman (C) 715-892-6488 email: headwatersreading@gmail.com
